Drouth And Insects Hazardous To Crop

With prospects in the northwestern area rated as the poorest in history, the Texas wheat crop may not exceed 15,000,000 bushels, and there is some reason to suspect that it may not reach that figure.

Drouth first hit the crop and a combination of insects and winter kill, with some help from high winds, has almost completed the wrecking process, with the result that many communities will be hard pressed to produce enough wheat for seeding purposes next fall.

Amid reports of heavy acreage abandonment as greenbugs and other unfavorable factors stemming from the long drouth continue to take a terrific toll, winter wheat prospects in the Southwest are the poorest in many years—perhaps the worst ever considering acreage planted.

Acreage loss is rapidly nearing the 15,000,000 acre mark, and with conditions more or less doubtful in an over-all way, the situation seems to threaten a major disaster. Adding to the distress is the fact that contrary to what is usually expected at this time of the year, there is little hope of material improvement.

The stricken area comprises nearly all of the western half of Kansas, western Nebraska, western Oklahoma, the Texas Panhandle, eastern Colorado and eastern New Mexico, where drouth, winter kill, greenbugs, cutworms, brown mites, root rot, soil erosion and everything else in the book of adversity have been hurled at the wheat crop since shortly after planting time last fall.

Milam Included In 31 County Survey

Charles M. Hicks, former superintendent of the Milam County Public School System, has recently been appointed as co-ordinator of the School Facility Survey.

Mr. Hicks, who has been connected with Texas Public Schools over the State of Texas is well known for his interest in school activities and the achievements he has made in the past years, justifies his appointment to this outstanding position by the State Education Agency.

He will have thirty-one counties in his district including Milam County. Mr. Hicks will make his headquarters in the city where he and Mrs. Hicks have lived for a number of years. His many friends will be glad to know of his appointment to this important and responsible position. His work, both as a teacher and a superintendent in the Schools of the county have aided in the progress of the Milam County School System.

Mr. Hicks began his duties with the Survey April 23 and had worked with the Creditation Department of the Texas Education Agency since sometime in March. He met with the superintendents of the Milam County Schools, in April at the Courthouse in regard to his new position in outlining the work and survey that must be largely completed by next fall.

There are nine Facility Co-ordinators of School Surveys in the State of Texas and the number of counties are assigned to the co-ordinators according to scholastic population or enrollment.

He writes that he is fine and the reason he is writing is because during "Operation Killer" he lost his address book and can't remember the addresses of his friends back home.

Iowa Man Is Slain During Argument

An Iowa man died at 6 am Sunday, a victim of a tavern brawl which authorities said started because a taxicab was an hour late in answering a call.

The victim was Jack Parker, 38, of Kelly, Iowa. He was shot in the head two times shortly before Saturday midnight.

R. G. Vaughan, operator of the tavern where the fight occurred, was charged with the shooting. Vaughan was released on $3,000 bond.

Sheriff Carl Black said his investigation showed Parker and Vaughan became embroiled in a bitter argument after the Iowan refused to take a taxicab which the tavern keeper had summoned at his request.

The call was made an hour earlier, the sheriff said, and Parker had changed his mind by the time the driver arrived.

Black said Parker was shot twice in the head with a 32-20 pistol.

Witnesses said the two men were standing face to face only a yard apart, when Parker was shot.

Sheriff Black said the first bullet entered on the left side and the second bullet ripped in just back of the ear.

About 20 people were in the tavern when the argument started, the sheriff said, but they fled and only one or two customers were left in the tavern when the shooting occurred.

Parker was taken to St. Edward Hospital and died about 6 a. m.

The sheriff said that Parker was married to or had been married to a girl that lived in Rogers, Bell County. The tavern is located in Santa Fe Town.

Vaughan waived examining trial, Black reported.

Marek-Burns Funeral Home were in charge and said that the body would be shipped to Earlham, Iowa for funeral services and burial.

Rural Sections May Soon Have Service

Progress is being made on the rural telephone survey being conducted by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in Milam County, it was disclosed by C. L. Carson, district manager.

Mr. Carson in a telephone call to the Cameron Herald Wednesday morning said the Jack Keller of Taylor and J. L. Barnes of Temple were canvassing in several areas of the county to contact subscribers.

It was reported by Mr. Carson that 150 customers in the Salem, Marlow, Hoyte, and Minerva communities had been contacted and a total of 98 had signed up for telephone service.

After the canvassing is done, the engineers will come in and make a complete survey and then the construction crew will begin work.

Mr. Carson could not say definitely when this work would be completed but work would begin as soon as possible and the company would probably get construction underway soon.

Rural citizens from all sections of the county have been very anxious in recent years to get phone service and from all indications the Southwestern Bell Company may soon extend its service to all areas of the county.

The Belmena, Maysfield and Jones Prairie communities will soon be canvassed, according to Mr. Carson.

Mrs. Ella Dobbins who has been visiting her sister and brother, Mrs. Lina Kemp and Wm. R. Rogers returned Monday afternoon to her home at Waco.

Mrs. Tonie Vogelsang was a guest in the home of her son at Houston over the week end.

New President Is Active On Job Here

Good tomato prospects in the county were increased Wednesday night with a rain amounting to as much as 1½ inches in some areas of the county.

The majority of the tomatoes in the county were set during the first week of April but a number of farmers planted some as early as the 20th of March. Due to the lack of moisture content, high winds and light freezes, considerable acreage was lost.

Since the rain this week, the fields look very promising and cultivation of this delicious vegetable is in full swing. At the present there is not a complete estimate of the total acreage lost.

Calvin Duncan with the Green Valley Produce Company of Weslaco was in Cameron and talked with Bill Arthur, president of the Chamber of Commerce, in regard to the erection of a green tomato shed in Cameron. If adequate tomato acreage could be obtained to justify the installation of a green wrap shed in the city, progress might be had soon.

Mr. Arthur mailed out over 125 cards to farmers in areas surrounding Cameron to get the actual acreage already planted. Up to the present 75 cards have been received with a total of 38½ acres. This acreage did not include the Milano area which usually goes in heavy on tomatoes each year and from recent reports will have a shed this year.

Mr. Arthur has been working consistently on this important project for the past months and from all indications a green shed may be in order for this season in Cameron. The location of the shed has not been designated but as soon as details are complete this will be announced. He has written Mr. Duncan in regard to the tomato acreage and the chamber is doing everything possible to locate a green wrap shed here this season.

Tomato farmers over the entire county as well as those in the surrounding areas will be glad to know of the interest the chamber is taking in connection with this project.

It was reported that 200 acres were planted in the Gause area. A shed will not be located there this year. The Hanover, Hoyte, Marlow and other communities will have large acreage this year.

The Chamber earnestly seeks the cooperation of all the tomato farmers concerning this project as a shed located in Cameron will be of great advantage to farmers over the whole county and will stimulate trade in this area. Merchants here should make special effort to back this important project.

Former Cameron Man Has "OPS" Trouble

Business establishments in Cameron have been deluged with "OPS Regulations" and the Chamber of Commerce Manager, L. G. Smith has done a good job in bringing the rules and regulations through the press before those who are supposed to comply with these regulations.

However, if you think Cameron is the only place where "OPS" is reigning, look what our own James L. Coleman is going through. In the morning mail the editor received a copy of The Daily Tribune, published in Bay City with the following lament by Mr. Coleman who recently left Cameron to go into business in that city:

All my hopes and dreams and aspirations
Are now dissolved in desperation.
I once had dreams of happiness,
But these gave way to O.P.S.
Of all sad things of song and story,
The saddest of these is category.
I have always tried to live a life
That's free of trouble, stress and strife,
But Bureaucratic tape and paper work
Has caused me all this ire and irk
I used to have a kind and loving spouse,
Children to love and a beautiful house,
But today this house is no longer my home,
Because I've become a Bureaucratic gnome
My employees, once so respectful and kind,
Are now very sure that I have lost my mind,
They snap at me—I snap at them,
Because at any time, they're expecting mayhem
My customers stare with curious air,
When I yell and I rant and I rear
They don't comprehend that I am just a man,
Who's harassed by a thing he don't understand.
Prices soar and the people roar,
And the price is the thing they abhor,
But what they do not comprehend,
Is the terrible mess we find ourselves in.
There's a little old law—it's all economic.
It's not electronic—not even atomic.
It's just a law that we all understand.
In simple language, it's supply and demand.
If this could get through to our heads of state,
It would save a lot of congressional debate.
I have no fear that our own Uncle Sam
Is in danger of becoming a sham.
I believe he will keep his pants and his shirt,
And grind all the isms down in the dirt.
I believe in America, the land of the free,
And complete supremacy of land, air and sea.
But the only gripe I have today
Is a government order, and I have this to say:
When I get to the pearly gates on high,
And St. Peter asks, "Why did you die?"
I can only answer with full realization,
It was due to the office of price stabilization.

—JAMES L. COLEMAN,

Beef Ceiling Prices To Be Set Today

WASHINGTON, April 28— The Government plans to announce dollars-and-cents ceiling prices on beef Saturday night.

Officials who reported this said the orders provide for progressive roll-backs on prices of live cattle with eventual lower prices to consumers—but with no immediate effect on retail prices of meat.

On official told a reporter the orders will bring cutbacks of 3 to 4 cents a pound at retail in June, with a similar reduction to follow next Fall.

Price Director Michael V. DiSalle was reported to have met stiff opposition from the Agriculture Department in his plan to cut cattle prices. Reporters were told the final decision to go ahead was made at the White House level.

The meat orders have been held up for the last two weeks because of uncertainty as to whether the live cattle reduction would be put into effect.

The regulations will establish dollars-and cents ceilings for beef at wholesale and retail levels and regulate the price which packers may pay for live cattle

College Deferments Are Not Mandatory

The new ruling regarding deferments for college students and the new student qualification tests, is not a change in the regulations but merely advice to local boards to consider for deferment those students who meet the requirements for student deferment consideration. In a radio discussion with Richard Harkness, NBC commentator, General Hershey said, in part, "The order said that the board may consider for deferment men who made seventy or who meet certain prescribed scholastic standards. The word 'shall' was not used. When the regulations say 'shall' they say you do it, but when it says 'may' the discretion still remains in the Local Boards."

Five categories of students may be considered for deferment, as follows:

1. The registrant has been accepted for admission to a graduate school for the class next commencing as a candidate for a graduate degree and in his last full time undergraduate academic year at a college, university, or similar institution of learning had a scholastic standing which placed him in the upper 1-2 of the male members of that class or has attained a score of 75 or more on the qualification test.

2. The registrant has been pursuing a course of instruction which requires the completion of either 5 or 6 years of full time undergraduate study to qualify him for the first academic degree and has successfully completed his fourth year or his fifth year, as the case may be, at a college, university, or similar institution of learning and had a scholastic standing in his last completed undergraduate year which placed him in the upper three fourths of the male members of that class or has attained a score of 70 or more on the qualification test and has been accepted for admission by a college, university, or similar institution of learning to the fifth year or sixth year class next commencing for a full time course of instruction or has entered upon and is satisfactorily pursuing such course.

3. The registrant has successfully completed his 3rd year at a college, university, or similar institution of learning and had a scholastic standing in his 3rd year class which placed him in the upper 3/4 of the male members of that class or has attained a score of 70 or more on the qualification test and has been accepted for admission by a college or similar institution of learning to the 4 year class next commencing for a full time course of instruction or is then satisfactorily pursuing such course.

4. The registrant has successfully completed his second year at a college, university, or similar institution of learning and had a scholastic standing in his 2nd year class which placed him in the upper 2-3 of the male members of that class or has attained a score of 70 or more on the qualification test referred to in and has been accepted for admission by a college or similar institution of learning to the 3rd year class next commencing for a full time course of instruction or has entered upon and is satisfactorily pursuing such course.

5. The registrant has successfully completed his first year in a college, university, or similar institution of learning and had a scholastic standing in his first year class which placed him in the upper one half of the male members of that class or has attained a score of 70 or more on the qualification test and has been accepted for admission by a college, university or similar institution of learning to the 2nd year class next commencing for a full time course of instruction or is then satisfactorily pursuing such course.

Each registrant in one of the above categories must also meet all the requirements set out by the Selective Services Regulations for deferment, part 1622.10.

With regard to deferments for high school students, in his discussion with Mr. Harkness, General Hershey said that no provisions have been made for deferment of high school students planning to enter college as yet, because as he pointed out, most high-school graduates are under the draft age and will still have time to enter college as freshmen and under the present regulations be postponed, and this is mandatory, until the completion of their academic year.

The Milam County Local Board, whose office is located on N. Centrol street in Cameron, has received a supply of instructions for applying for the college qualification test and applications. Any student who desires this information and the application blank may call by the office and secure one.

Meter Returns Fall Off But Maintain $200 Week Average

During the past three weeks the revenue from the parking meters has been considerable less than in previous weeks

Heretofore meter collections have run substantially around $225.00 or more, but the last three collections have been near the $200.00 mark with this week's return amounting to only $197.55, according to Marshall Terry, officer in charge of collections.

On April 20 $208.72 was taken from the meter boxes and on April 13 $207.40 was collected. If, however the returns continue to maintain the $200.00 bracket, a large amount of income will be realized from this source annually.

It was reported however that the drop in revenue was due to the fact that many of the rural people were busy in farming activities and were only frequent visitors to the city, and to Mrs. Canasta is doing her spring house cleaning and doesn't have the extra time to chat as often on her downtown shopping tour. Mrs. Canasta is observing all of the meter ordinance regulations and is becoming educated to the fact that the rules must be observed.

Citizens who have so willingly and faithfully utilized the meter system are doing much to increase the permanent street fund set aside by the council several months ago.

Applicants May Get Cards May 3

Aviation Safety Agents from the CAA Houston District Office will be at the Easterwood Airport, near Bryan May 3 from 10 A. M. to 9 P. M. for the purpose of issuing Airmen Identification Cards.

It will be necessary for everyone who holds any type of certificate issued by the Civil Aeronautics Administration to have an identification Card by September 1, 1951. Civilians in this area having pilot's licenses should make plans to be present in order to receive their identification cards.

It was reported that this is being done to get an estimate of how many civilian pilots there are in case of a disaster of any kind. It will be appreciated by the CAA if pilots will cooperate in this procedure. Applicants are being notified so that they may have time to secure required credentials.

Farmers Urged To Take Advantage Of Cotton Classification In '51

Texas cotton farmers are urged to market their 1951 cotton crop by the green tag method. According to John L. McCollum, manager, PMA's southwest area cotton branch, USDA, Dallas, the green tag signifies that the bale has been classed by U.S.D.A. cotton classifiers and the tag carries the grade and staple length for the bale.

Demand promises to be strong for this year's crop, says McCollum and the grade and staple information will enable the farmer to get the best price for his cotton.

Last year 107,819 Texas farmers took advantage of the U.S.D.A.'s Smith-Doxey cotton classing program and marketed 1,389,150 bales under the green tag system. Farmers can get the same service again this year without cost by making application for it, says McCollum.

Requirements include membership in a group which has been organized to promote the improvement of cotton, adopting a variety, filing an application, arranging for sampling and meeting other requirements.

Information may be obtained from your local county agricultural agent on the Smith-Doxey classification service.

Grand Jurors Selected For May Term Of Court

Graham, District Judge, as provided by law, they proceeded to select the necessary jurors and grand jurors for the May Term of Court, which is the longest session of the year, extending from the first Monday in May to the first Monday in September.

Texas Baptists Will Observe Mother's Day

First Baptist Church, Cameron, will join Texas Baptists in observance of Mother's Day, Sunday May 13, by giving to a special hospital charity fund in their churches, Rev. P. A. Corkern said today.

Who said You can't Afford a Fine Car?

WHEN you look at all a ROADMASTER has to offer, it's only natural to conclude that it's priced with the rest of the fine-car field.

Sweeping proudly past you, it has a distinction that few cars can equal.

Stepping nimbly away from a stop light, it has the willing surge of power that the very exclusive combination of a 152-horsepower Fireball engine and Dynaflo Drive* delivers.

It rides the road with majestic smoothness, and comes to a smooth and gentle halt, in response to the finest brakes Buick ever developed.

Inside, it has spacious room, from side to side and front to back and seat to roof—plus a softness of cushions and a richness of fabrics which bespeak the custom standards to which it is painstakingly built.

*Yours at no extra cost on ROADMASTERS.

All you could want in a fine car is here in abundance.

But don't let that fool you into deciding "it's too rich for me."

If you've looked into 1951 car prices generally, you'll discover this:

You can own a ROADMASTER for just a shade more than an ordinary car will cost—and for several hundred dollars less than the price tags usually found in "the fine-car field."

Why not look into this today?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

Temple Agrees To Minor Withdrawal

TEMPLE, April 27— Temple's city commission suddenly retreated from the Leon River to Pepper Creek in its annexation move Thursday night, but Belton people, fighting for valuable taxable property within their school district, apparently felt that wasn't enough.

Thursday's surprise move by the same three commissioners who had so boldly defied Belton opposition to moving the Temple city limits to the Leon River actually gave back to the Belton school district about a third of the area originally scheduled for annexation to Temple.

Under the new annexation plan the Temple city limits would extend only to Pepper Creek, about a mile nearer Temple on old Highway 81 than the Leon River boundary which outlined the area in the original plan. But the commissioners decided to retain a "strip of land along the new highway which would run to the Leon River. The REA steam generating plant was excluded but virtually encircled in the new proposal.

The three commissioners announced their decision to exclude the REA plant from Temple city limits after a telephone conversation with Congressman W. R. Poage Thursday night.

Poage was in Waco for a short visit and contacted the commissioners by telephone. Poage apparently told the commissioners of plans to expand the steam generating plant.

Temple's other two commissioners argued for a compromise on the city limits extension at Tuesday night's session. The two, Winston Liles and Louie Jenkins, declined to vote when the first extension was voted.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. West spent Sunday at Rockdale and attended church services at the First Baptist church there with Rev. Cliff Brannon as pastor.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Esslinger and Mr. and Mrs. Presley Tindall attended the formal opening of the Schuhmacher Company in Bryan Sunday.

Girls, you can't make your husband feel like a Pagan God by placing a burnt offering before him at meal-time.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ridout, Hugh Glenn and Dorothy Jane of Belton spent the week end in the John Tindall home.

It's probably true that all things come to him who waits; but we're inclined to believe that they are likely to come too late to do any good.

Mrs. Dan Robinson is visiting her daughters, Mrs. Arthur Moore and Mrs. Howard Manley at Temple this week.

Family Specialist To Discuss Problems

The recent White House Conference on Children and Youth held in Washington, D. C. is the subject for discussion at the county-wide Child Welfare conference being planned by the Milam county Save the Children Committee, in cooperation with other agencies, in Cameron, on Thursday evening May 3 at 8 P. M. in the dining room of the Milam Coffee shop.

Mrs. Eloise Trigg Johnson, Family Life Specialist, Texas A & M College, who was one of the Texas delegates to the White House Conference, will be the guest speaker for the conference. She will bring to the group the highlights and recommendations of the White House Conference whose program was built around "Ways in Which we can Develop in Children the Mental, Emotional, and Spiritual Qualities Essential to Individual Happiness and Responsible Citizenship." This is a subject of interest to every person in the county who is working with children or the families of children, and every one is invited to participate in this conference.

There will be an open discussion period in which all may participate in bringing to light problems being faced each day and ways in meeting these.

Farm Parity Freeze Is Aim Of Truman

WASHINGTON, April 25— Legislators said Wednesday night the Truman administration plans to ask Congress for the authority to put a year-at-a-time freeze on farm parity prices in a new move to hold food costs down.

Tighter rent controls, including ceilings on rents for commercial property.

Subsidies on some imports, perhaps including coffee (subsidies are payments by the government of part of the cost in order to hold down the retail price in consumers).

"Probably" some new restrictions on credit, in addition to the installment buying and other curbs already in force.

Such new anti-inflation powers will be asked by the president in a special message proposing extension of the Defense Production Act, which expires in June. It is under this law that the government has imposed wage and price controls and many other economic curbs in the past year.

At present the law says price ceilings on farm products must not be fixed below parity—a shifting price that rises and falls with the cost of things farmers have to buy.

Thus if the parity price of wheat for example, were set at $2.50 a bushel, price officials could impose a $2.50 ceiling and wheat couldn't legally be sold for more than that during the next 12 months.

If the parity price should work out at $2.60, for instance, at the end of the year, then the ceiling would have to be raised.

GI's May Reinstate Lapsed Insurance

The new Insurance Act signed into law on April 25 by President Truman has ended the right of veterans to apply for new GI insurance. In commenting on the new law, John W. Ruff, Acting Manager of the Veterans Administration Center, pointed out that the new law does not effect existing NSLI policies in any way, and if lapsed, any permanent plan insurance may be reinstated at any time upon payment of delinquent premiums and interest, provided the veteran can meet the necessary medical requirements.

Mr. Ruff also stated that veterans who had GI insurance on the term plan in service and later dropped it may reinstate it by payment of two monthly premiums, if they meet medical requirements, provided the term period has not expired. Term GI policies issued prior to 1946 were for an eight year period. Those issued later were for only a five year period.

Time Changed On First Aid Course; Now 7 To 10 P. M.

Tonight is the second session of the First Aid Class now in progress and there is still plenty of time to join in this emergency aid activity.

Many beneficial results are obtained from these courses in first aid and everyone is urged to attend tonight from 7:00 to 11:00 P. M. at the Yoe High Gymnasium.

Miss Dallye Young is instructor and is doing a good job and it was hoped that enough interested would be aroused that a large school would be held. The courses are sponsored by the Red Cross and are of great value to everyone. Citizens should have some knowledge of first aid activity and know what to do in any case of emergency.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl McFarland, Douglas and Charlotte were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hearne at Bryan Sunday.

Mrs. Dan Tyson is spending a few days in Austin this week visiting her daughter, Jane Tyson.

Reds Rush New Men Into Fresh Assault

(From the Daily)
TOKYO, Monday, April 30— In a bold decision to defend Seoul, the 8th Army turned and dug in Sunday night to meet an all out Chinese Red assault expected Tuesday on the Communist May Day holiday.

The Communists, having lost an officially estimated 70,000 of the 300,000 men with whom they began their offensive April 22, rushed up reinforcements from their nearby 300,000 man reserve.

Through the night a wall of fire from one of the war's greatest artillery barrages held the already savagely mauled Reds at bay. Ships of the Allied fleet a score of miles westward in the Yellow Sea joined the vast bombardment.

Lt. Gen. James A. Van Fleet suddenly announced to correspondents late Sunday his decision to stand before Seoul.

After a solid week of retreat, it caught everyone by surprise, from Van Fleet's 8th Army headquarters up to the front command posts.

In taking this first major step since he assumed command two weeks ago, Van Fleet said he liked the looks of his Army's positions. Censorship cloaked exact location of those positions.

Before the clamp down, however, defensive lines were reported Sunday morning to be four miles north of Seoul, with Allied tanks roving as much as 10 miles north.

Strongly arrayed in a 30-mile-long defense arc, the 8th Army held ridges, foxholes and barbed wire barricades at points north of the city.

The defense of Seoul began with a great artillery barrage. Ground troops moved into the line in depth.

An umbrella of airpower was counted upon to aid the ground forces in their stand.

The planned withdrawal of Allied troops all along the 100-mile-wide Korean battlefield apparently had reached an end. New defenses ranged from 25 miles south of the 38th parallel in the west to about eight miles north of the old prewar boundary on the extreme east coast. One week ago Allied lines were seven to 12 miles north of the parallel in the west and 26 miles in the east. The changes represented withdrawals of 37 miles or less in fending off the hammer blows of five Chinese Communist groups and four North Korean corps.

Killeen Votes $300,000 Bonds

KILLEEN, April 26— Voters gave overwhelming approval to the issuing of $300,000 in tax bonds. The margin was 10 to 1 for the bonds and 171 ballots were cast in an unprecedented turnout for a bond election.

The voters in effect gave the city the green light for a four-point program that means big-business for Killeen. Approved are bonds that will provide money for these proposals:

1. $75,000 for water facility expansion.
2. $50,000 for sewer expansion.
3. $150,000 for street improvement.
4. $25,000 for a new fire station.

I'll match my Dodge with any car on the road for Value and Dependability

—says MICHAEL OPPENHEIM
"Sure, I've owned and driven other make cars," says Michael Oppenheim, Bellerose, N.Y. "But since 1941 my cars have all been Dodges. I know how dependable Dodge cars are, how little they cost to run. In fact, my new 1951 car is another dependable Dodge!"

You could pay up to $1,000 more and not get all the extra room, comfort and rugged dependability of Dodge Compare what Dodge gives you... with what other cars offer. You'll understand why Dodge owners say they'll match Dodge with any car on the road.

Take riding comfort for example. You could pay far more for a car and still not get the almost unbelievable smoothness of the new Oriflow ride. Even on roughest roads there's no wheel "hop" or bounce... wheels stay on ground providing a smooth, level ride for all passengers.

You get the relaxing comfort of extra head room, leg room and shoulder room. You never feel cramped or crowded. And Dodge gives you the priceless safety of "Watchtower" visibility... of big Safe-Guard Hydraulic Brakes with larger braking surface for smooth, sure stops.

Dodge Gyro-Matic is the lowest priced automatic transmission on the market. It lets you drive without shifting... yet it is simpler, safer—gives you full control of your car under all driving conditions. Come in—see and drive today's big Dodge.

No Major Buildings For Month Of April

Building permits for the month of April totaled only $6,630.00 according to W. H. Stafford, City Secretary.

ing to W. H. Stafford, City Secretary.

This sharp drop was not expected in the city as permits totaled over $18,000.00 during the month of March. The construction of a house by G. W. McLain was the only major building for the month at a reported sum of $5,000.00. A small house by H. L. Green and general garage repairs make up the total.

There is still a shortage in some building materials but the majority of the lumber yards in the city are pretty well stocked on good quality materials and furnishings, it was reported.

No major constructions are scheduled for the city in the next few weeks but it was hoped that building projects would get back in order within a short time.

First Aid Course Progressing Here

There were several additions this week to the Red Cross First Aid Course being taught here by Miss two of the six classes have been completed four remain to be held on the next four consecutive Monday evenings at the gym from 7 to 10 o'clock, and interested persons are still invited to join. The first lesson was on treating for shock following accident.

Miss Young showed her class of 15 how to bandage various injuries; how to make a sling for a broken arm; pressure points to stop the flow of blood following injury and emphasized that with direct pressure to a wound or on pressure points, or even if a tourniquet has been applied the flow should not be cut off entirely for more than a 15 minute period at a time because collapse of an artery resulting might cause loss of the affected member. A brief release of the pressure at intervals permits normal action to be restored.

Next Monday, treatment of various wounds including snake bites, eye injuries, etc will be given. Even though a person can attend only one session of a first aid course, he can profit by the teachings of that single meeting and is invited to attend.

Attending Monday evening were Mesdames Conrad Jekel, Jack DuBois, Jack Reavis, E. G. Lowe, Alva Sanders, Faye Kohutek, John Davis, Mary Green, Jack Walker, Adolph Winfield, Grady Stidham, Ben Reichert; Miss Anna Lee Kirk; Rev. John Solomon and John D. Reichert.
